Dear Lois:

Our family received your lovely Christmas greeting yesterday and we were so pleased, not only to hear from you, but also to receive the lovely photograph. It looks like a very recent one and certainly was a very thoughtful inclusion in your Christmas card.

Sue and I, and the children, remember with such pleasure your time spent in Abilene. It was our personal profit to have been able to associate with you on a much more personal basis than even we had known while attending Freed-Hardeman College.

We hope you will have a lovely holiday season and that you will find God richly blessing you in the days ahead, even as He has in the past. We remember you in our prayers and send you our love and best wishes.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
